

Honoured Queen Elect

I need to feel your velvet touch to make it through the day;
The cards say you're my King no matter what we play.
A Prince, come from a royal line, how well you fit the part
And now a leader in command, ruling but my heart.
I offer regal treasures, such splendour rarely seen;
Take me to your castle, make me honoured Queen.
Slay the fierce dragons, both real and in my head--
Then carry me, my gallant knight, lay me on my bed
Hold me close and tightly, kiss away my fear;
Wake me with the sunshine each day of the year.
