

Love Affair: Long Distance

Everything's bigger in...

--Yeah, we know.

But I'm just not into w i d e o p e n spaces.

There are too many miles to Texas,

too many between you and me.

Give me a mountain

or a lake

or an Island...

Something with boundaries and limitations.

Give me a finite world with a book of rules

And a clock that keeps ticking and ticking:

Reminding me of the preciousness of time,

where I should be spending it,

and whose arms I should be lying in.
